"I started my makeup artistry journey in 1987 studying fashion, modelling and makeup in Vancouver B.C. Over the years, I have gained experience in the makeup industry by being consistent and always maintaining current trends and techniques. I have worked and developed my expertise in successfully educating women on both skincare and makeup. By listening to the needs and desires of all women, I help them achieve their beauty aspirations. I provide all the necessary options and guide them through every step of their transformation, ensuring they feel confident and empowered throughout their own journey." "Celebrate your true self by highlighting your best features and enhancing your natural beauty." ~ Debbie Goulding, Makeup Artist
