

Maureen McCartney

Owner and Operating Partner

KELLER WILLIAMS
INSPIRE REALTY

For Maureen McCartney, real estate has never been about the properties—it has always been about the people. With over 20 years of industry depth, Maureen's "why" is rooted in a deep-seated passion for mentoring others to design lives they truly love.

Maureen's journey is defined by true grit. Having navigated her own path through adversity with a "no-excuses" mindset, she has become a beacon of resilience for those around her.

This drive led her to become the owner and Broker of Record of Keller Williams Inspire Realty, born from a desire to disrupt outdated models. She envisioned a brokerage built by agents, for agents—a place where the focus shifts from the transaction to the individual. By prioritizing growth, education, and emotional intelligence, Maureen empowers her team to build businesses worth owning and, more importantly, lives worth living.

Whether she is volunteering for local and international causes or navigating a volatile market, Maureen leads with a steady hand and an optimistic heart.

To her, true success is found in being the "calm in the storm," helping others navigate change with clarity, peace, and unwavering purpose.
